The PAC website is the home of the Perth County cultural database of artists, artisans, performers in all disciplines, arts groups, theatre and cultural events in Perth County. If you think you or your group should be listed here, please contact us at info@perthartsconnect.ca

Your events and activities will be featured on our website and listed in our calendar. AND you can have your own micro-site presence like the one featured below that links directly to your website.

PAC's weekly newsletter promotes your most current exhibitions, performances, and achievements, and keeps you in touch with calls for entry, workshops, and upcoming professional development opportunities.

Synergy

Perth Arts Connect works with members of the Arts, Culture and Heritage Communities to provide:

- Arts & Performance Showcases
- Networking Opportunities
- Affordable Marketing Options
- A Central Calendar
- Training to Support Entrepreneurship
- Strong Partnerships with Local Organizations such as Perth County Visitors' Association, and Stratford Tourism Alliance.
- Grant Supported Events & Activities

Revitalizing

- PAC was founded in 2009
- The heavy lifting is done—PAC is Incorporated and has Bylaws
- Maintains a robust existing website infrastructure connected with the Perth County Visitors' Association (PCVA).
- PAC is member-driven
- Join us, help PAC grow, and share in making this organization all that you could wish it to be!

Culture Days

- Be part of the annual Canada-wide celebration!
- Share your arts, culture and heritage with the other talent from the region.
- Take advantage of the team marketing opportunities.
- Invite the world to experience what you have to offer.
